| 28th March 2020 | Barmouth | Discover Dinas Oleu, Barmouth 3 – 5pm, Guided Walk Take some time out in nature by joining the National Trust's rangers for a circular walk around Dinas Oleu and Cae Fadog. See in the spring with a short, but challenging walk around the Trust's first parcel of land and learn about the beginnings of Europe's largest conservation charity, celebrating its 125th anniversary. Wrap up in warm, waterproof clothing. Steep, uneven terrain. Meet outside Dragon Theatre Booking essential. Email eryri@nationaltrust.org.uk or call 01766 510120 to reserve a place. The Fortress of Light at Night 7 – 8.30pm As part of the National Trust's 125th anniversary, watch the headland of Dinas Oleu, the Fortress of Light, glow as the Trust shines a light on its first parcel of land. Head to Barmouth beach at dusk to admire the lights on the headland and enjoy some chocolate smores around the campfire. Wrap up in warm, waterproof clothing, bring a torch and your homemade glass lanterns. Join the gathering on the beach, near the Life Boat Station.
